Presents the

HISTORY
of
CHINA TEST MATCHES
2014 - 2018

China commenced their International playing career on 20th December 2014 when a team of Mixed players travelled to Hong Kong to play in a two test series sanction by the Federation

After two games the score were 7-4 for each country with one win each. The reverse set of games was played on 10th January 2015 in China where Hong Kong proved just a better team with two close wins thus winning the inaugural ANZ Test Series.

Attached is the results of test matches played by China against another FIT Member. Their first official match is recorded as a win to China's opponents.

However they redeemed themselves the very next game and recorded wins against Malaysia in 2017 and in the May 2018 in the tri series in Hong Kong, China defeated the Philippines in both Men and Mixed divisions.
